

---

AI Newsletter

---

Are you interested in the topic of artificial intelligence and would like to receive regular updates about what is happening in relation to AI at the university?
Subscribe to our AI Newsletter!

Starting from December 2024, we publish a newsletter every month, in which we share news related to artificial intelligence at the university. Whether it is new courses, trainings, links to interesting articles, we strive to share information that might interest AI users and enthusiasts at our university.

Take a look at the already published issues or subscribe by writing to the email address alzbeta.moravcova@ruk.cuni.cz.

	February 2025 Charles University To Lead European Research on LLMs for Next-Generation AI, New AI assistant for Oxford English Dictionary, Webinar: AI chatbot for Libraries, archives and institutions You might find interesting: The Psychology of AI Doom, A GPT-4 class model now runs on laptops
	January 2025 Three Insights into the Behind-the-Scenes of AI at CUNI, 2024 LLM review

December 2024

The Future of Student Theses in the Era of Artificial Intelligence, How Reliable are AI detectors, Working with AI at Harvard